Let us know what you think of our blog/newsletter so far. Please comment or ask questions on the blog itself, or send an email to readermailbag@compuclinic.us

If you haven't done so already, please visit one of the review sites listed below and leave a review about the service you received in our shop. This helps other people make good purchasing decisions and lets us know how we can improve. We encourage you to also review any other businesses that you frequent as well. We appreciate any feedback that you can give.

Thank you,

Johann Taylor
